

A scatter plot showing two classes of data points (blue and orange) in a 2D space. The data is non-linearly separable, forming a complex shape. A red dot and a blue dot are placed near the center of the distribution.

